Janie - a beautiful lady inside and out. Such beautiful eyes and smile that made everyone you came into contact with feel special. You were always so kind to my Mama and Daddy - please give them hugs and kisses from me now that you're in the loving arms of our Heavenly Father, as are they. Let them know I miss them every moment of every day. Say hey to your Mama and Ken also. What a joyous reunion you must be having with family and friends. I know your family will miss you, but they also know you are rejoicing with our Lord and Saviour. An amazing Christian woman that had such a positive effect on so many, myself included. Love you my Sister and friend in Christ...Rosalie Thornhill Ulmer

Betty Jane was one of the sweetest and most Godly and wonderful woman. A true angel here on earth. I met her through her sister Shirley and beloved mother Lillian when I was 15 yrs. old. The three of them are great examples of God's love and steadfastness. She was always kind and generous to everyone that I ever knew who met her. When I was 19 yrs. old, going to have my first child, the radiator on our car blew up and her son Larry saw us on the road near her house and invited me to visit with her while he and my husband went to fix the car. We were travelling back to Michigan at that time. When I got to her house, I said, "I know you!" and we talked until the guys had everything fixed. What a great example of the way to raise a son--I didn't know him and didn't know where she lived--that was God working to bring his children together all those years ago. There are no words to comfort you, the family, but God will comfort you as she knew He would. We will never forget her and she will live on in our hearts and memories till we meet again. Love to you all.

Your family is a true reflection of your mother's love and all she was. There is no doubt she was a beautiful, loving and caring woman and that great God given beauty lives within all of you. Any one that stood in her presence or was a part of her life was truly blessed. She was one of God's angels that was sent to be of part of everyone's life she touched. Thank God for these amazing angels.....

Ms. Betty, this is ole Doug talking...We're all gonna miss you and there goes our trip to Australia shot in the butt, that's one thing we're gonna miss, plus our good times together...you, I and your sis Shirley. But hey, we'll all get together in the big town in the sky. Along with everyone else, love you, and try and behave yourself because God is right next to you...baby. Doug.

Sis, this is so useless that you are there and I am here. Who will answer at the end of the line? Who will send me sister cards and sing Happy Birthday on the phone? Who will like my home cooked food as much as you did? And why in the world didn't you come with me when I called you 10 days ago? The three of us would have cut the rug/had a ball/worshipped our God together. I would have protected you and the dogs could have learned to stay outside. And if you're reading this, you're probably saying, "Whatever...get over it." I'm glad I still have your voice several times on my recorder, especially the Happy Birthday on April 22. I will miss all that spoiling me, and I think you were making up for that time you beat me up in the closet when we were kids. Doug misses you a lot. You were his best girl too. I loved seeing you two laugh together. I loved both your hubbies, Alvin and Kenny. Alvin taught me to drive his truck, and Kenny and I were of the same thinking a lot. So kiddo, here's looking at you. Just mad that you're having no tears and I'm having too many. You were probably the best big sister anyone ever had. I will always love you Sister, mine. Just me, Shirley and Doug....and Pete.

I will miss your loving smile and gracious soul. If I could have hand picked a mother, you would have been the one! I was so close to getting to see you one more time but, I know you are at peace and without any pain, resting in God's hands. I plan on meeting you again someday. Save me a place at your table :) I love you, Jane. As for your family...you were all so very blessed to have had her in lives for 85 years. I know how much you will all miss her but, I also know exactly where she is resting. God bless you all.

Grandma Tarwater was one of the sweetest, most Godly women I've ever known. She was so consistent and genuine with her warm smile and kind hearted nature. I'll forever remember the natural glow that radiated from within, for all to see the joy and love she had for God and her family. I can only imagine her rejoicing with Our Heavenly Father and all the Angels that she's longed to be with! Prayers for comfort for the family and all that had the honor of knowing this amazing woman. "I am leaving you with a gift -- peace of mind and heart. And the peace I give is a gift the world cannot give. So don't be troubled or afraid." John 14:27
