Poem for a Young Son
To lose a fine and precious Son

Weather man or boy,
Deprives the heart of all its warmth
And life of so much joy.

But each year on this special day
We celebrate your birth,
And treasure every moment
That you were here on earth.

We took those days for granted
And never dreamt or thought,

Poem 21

That all our lives would change so much
And yours would be so short.

But now we must remember
That although the tears may fall,
The son we'll miss forever
Brought sunshine to us all

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Marc by contributing to a collection of shared memories.
