I did not get the pleasure to meet Sandi in person but became friends on facebook. We shared our joy in sharing our first Great Granddaughter, Harper. My Granddaughter and Will loved her as Will talked of his Nana. May God be with them and the family.

"Nana" That was the name that gave you the most joy! I knew your children and grandchildren were the light of your life and they were blessed to have the most caring Nana on this earth! Sandi, I know we took a little time to bond but as I grew older I could tell you shared the same passion as my dad and had a good heart. Even when you were not feeling 100% you were always pleasant and had a lot to be thankful for. I know you loved God and so now we can all be at ease to know you are at peace and dancing in heaven with him and you are united with others that have gone before. We love you Sandi. I will be wearing my racing shirt in honor of you tomorrow!

Sandi and I started school together and with our busy lives got to talk once in awhile so the news of her passing just broke my heart. She was a funny kid and laughed a lot ,as you all know she had a kind heart .She was the first to offer kind words and to uplift your spirit. Rest in peace my dear friend.
