From Weston, FL: Your family has remained in my heart, thoughts, and prayers. I know words may do very little to help you, I hope you know so many hundreds and hundreds of people wish you to know you are loved and supported and you are not alone. We are deeply, deeply sorry for what you are having to endure. Bless you and may you find healing in each new day. Alexis

Daddy please don't look so sad, Mommy please don't cry. Cause I am in the arms of Jesus and he sings me lullabies. Please try not to question God, Don't think he is unkind. Don't think he sent me to you, and then he changed his mind. You see, I am a special child, and I am needed up above. I am the special gift you gave him, the product of your love. I'll always be there with you, so watch the sky at night. Find the brightest star that gleaming, that's my halos brilliant light. You'll see me in the morning frost, that mists your window pane. That's me in the summer showers, I'll be dancing in the rain. When you feel a gentle breeze from the wind that blows that's me- I'll be there, a kiss on your nose. When you see a child playing and your heart feels a little tug. That's when I'll be there, giving your heart a hug. So, Daddy Please don't look so sad, Mommy don't you cry. I am in the arms of Jesus, and he sing me lullabies. ~Unknown~-
