My deepest sympathies to Dan, Tammy and Tim! Sandy was a great person who always knew how to make you smile. She was like a second mother to me during my teenage years. She loved everyone and always made sure that you had a shoulder to cry on or some good advice for you! It has been years since I have been around but I will never forget her smile and the joy that she brought to everyone around her. RIP.

I haven't seen Sandy in many, many years but I will always remember her contagious laugh and classic eye-roll. She always made me feel important and like one of her own when me and daddy would visit uncle Eugene and the Norman posse of cousins I have. Love to all of you and hugs from KY. I love you very much! -Judy Norman-Rains
