Daddy please don't look so sad, Mommy please don't cry. Cause I am in the arms of Jesus and he sings me lullabies. Please try not to question God, Don't think he is unkind. Don't think he sent me to you, and then he changed his mind. You see, I am a special child, and I am needed up above. I am the special gift you gave him,the product of your love. I'll always be there with you, so watch the sky at night. Find the brightest star that gleaming, that's my halos brilliant light. You'll see me in the morning frost, that mists your window pane. That's me in the summer showers, I'll be dancing in the rain. When you feel a gentle breeze from the wind that blows that's me- I'll be there, a kiss on your nose. When you see a child playing and your heart feels a little tug. That's when I'll be there, giving your heart a hug. So, Daddy Please don't look so sad, Mommy don't you cry. I am in the arms of Jesus, and he sing me lullabies. ~Unknown~ from the day deziray found out she was pregnant, rylan became a huge part of everyone's lives. we watched her belly grow, we were there for her birth, and we watched rylan grow. rylan's life was a journey we were all following, a journey that ended way too soon. even if we couldn't all watch him grow in person, we watched him grow in pictures and videos. rylan was one of the happiest babies i had ever met in my life, as long as he had his mommy; he was at his happiest. he always brightened everyone's day with his beautiful smile, a smile that we will all have in our hearts. i remember the first time i met rylan, i was babysitting for his parents and he didn't like it very much. he was upset so i called deziray and she knew just what to do. she told me to put her on speaker and she started talking to him. i had never seen a baby so happy to hear his mommy's voice, he had the biggest smile on his face, he grabbed my phone and put it to his face just smiling. when she came to get him, he lost it. he was so happy, he was smiling and laughing. deziray goes "awe you just wanted us to come get you huh", he was so happy. when she got rylan home she sent me a video of him passed out, he wouldn't sleep until he had his momma. rylan was just such an amazing little boy. we will never forget the happiness he brought into our lives. fly high little man, we love and miss you ❤️. we will all meet again someday ❤️👶.

rylan was always so happy and smiley. from the day deziray found out she was pregnant, rylan became a big part of everyone's lives. we watched her belly grow, we watched her birth, and we watched him grow. even if we all couldn't see him grow in person, we watched him grow in pictures and videos. it was a journey we were all following, a journey that ended too soon. rylan was one of the happiest babies i have ever met, everytime he looked at his mommy he was so happy. i remember the night i met him, i was babysitting him for his parents and he would not stop crying until he heard deziary's voice. it was something i had never seen before. i called his mom cause he was so upset, she told me to put her on speaker and the second he heard her voice he was so happy. he had the biggest smile on his face, he grabbed my phone and was just staring at it smiling. when she came to pick him up he was laughing and smiling. deziray goes "oh you just wanted us to come get you, didn't you" and he just laughed. i will never forget how happy rylan made his mom and vise versa, he always brightened the mood when he was around (even though i didn't get to see him often).

I have been seeing pictures of Rylan on his mommy and daddy's Facebook page since right after he was born. I could tell how much he was loved and what a happy baby he was. I actually just met Rylan last week when Mommy and Daddy stopped by my job to say hello. He had the biggest most beautiful blue eyes and infectious smile. I was holding him and playing with him and he would smile so big as he sat there on top of my desk. I am so sad to know this beautiful boy was taken from his parents. I will treasure those few moments I spent with him always and I feel honored that his parents introduced me to him. Braden and Deziray I am so sorry for your loss. I know the pain of losing a child and I wouldn't wish that on anyone. I am praying for God to give you both comfort and strength.
