Hi Victoria!! Your mom was such a sweetheart. She and I and a third friend, another Debbie all shared a house together in Warrenton Lakes just prior to your mom moving to Florida. Although I met you as a baby when she visited VA with you as an infant, distance came between us and we fell out of contact, very unfortunate but that's how life goes sometimes. Debbie and I shared many good times in that house we shared. Know that your entire family are in our prayers. God bless! ❤️👤 Gail (and Carl) Bandy (aka Gail Prose, Brewster)

Debbie Threadgill I can't believe God called you home so soon. I truly loved your mom. We had a lot of fun while she was married to my brother Walter Threadgill Jr. Please know Victoria you and the rest of the family are in my prayers. I can't get over the sudden loss of your precious mother and my friend. May she rest in peace now. I apologize for not being able to say goodbye but „Debbie God called you home before I knew you was sick. Guess that was all part of God's great plan for your life. No more pain. Rest In Peace Sweet Lady. I will surely miss you.

Thank you so much Gail. My husband and I plan on visiting Warrenton soon and bringing some of momma's ashes to burry next to my grandmother in Round Hill at her brother's farm. I would like to meet you if you have the time when we come.

Victoria, your mom and I go way back to our middle school years! We were the best of friends growing up! If I wasn't at her house, then she was at mine. That is actually how our parents met driving us back and forth to each other's houses! Once our parents got together, we were always together along with the Clark family, and that was how the three of us got together! Margaret was the youngest and wanted to be "cool" like us. :) We camped together all three or more families constantly and all the kids were out and about running around the campgrounds or making s'mores. It was a wonderful time and I was so lucky to have your mom as my friend and confidant. As life moves on and she moved to Florida, we didn't talk as much. When we visited it was like old times. Then Facebook came along and we were able to keep in touch much easier. I loved your mom like a sister and can't believe she is gone. I know she is in a better place and with our moms now. Love to you and the entire family. Sherry McKenzie

Thank you Sherry. I know she talked about you a lot and told me about the fun times and then I got to grow up with the love of our extended families. She will be missed but I am ok knowing she's at peace now.
