Paul E Miller

JUL 8, 1935 - APR 1, 2018

Paul E Miller, 82, went to meet Jesus on Easter Morning, April 1, 2018. He was born July 8, 1935 in Hutchinson, Kansas to the late Eli and Mary (Kaufman) Miller. In addition to his parents, he is preceded in death by his daughter Michele; brother Bert; and sisters Sarah and Liz. When Paul was 3 years old, his family moved from Kansas to Kalona, Iowa where he lived until 1957. He came to Sarasota then and was a member of Bayshore Mennonite Church and worked as a realtor.

Paul was an avid sports fan. He played and coached softball for many years. He was in the State and District Hall of Fame for Shuffleboard. Most of all he enjoyed spending time with his family and having “breakfast with his buddies” every morning at Der Dutchman.

There will be a visitation on Friday, April 6, 2018 from 5:00 to 8:00 pm at Bethel Mennonite Church. Committal will be Saturday, April 7th at 9:00 am in Bethel Mennonite Cemetery followed by a Memorial Service in the church at 10:00 am.

Memorial contributions may be made in Paul’s Honor to Sarasota Christian School or Bayshore Church. Memories and condolences may be left online at www.sunset-fh.com.

What a wonderful guy. Billy and I well miss Paul. A true gentleman and it was a honor to know him as so many did. I remember Paul sharing with me on the shuffleboard courts how he loved the Lord. I will never forget that. We will be praying for you, Mary, and your family at this difficult time. Billy and Pat Batdorff
