The Good Lord could not have blessed us with better neighbors than Tom and Linda Cimo. Tom was a good man who was quick to lend a helping hand whenever it was needed. We will miss his advice, problem-solving (along with Biki, Lee, and Lloyd, otherwise known as the Claonia Men) and his expertise. But, most of all we will miss his steadfast friendship, talks across the fence, and friendly waves when time was short. He was a man who possessed a deep commitment to his God, his wife, his family, and his neighborhood. His passing leaves a void but the way he lived his life leaves a beautiful example of which we would be blessed if we could somehow emulate. Rose and Debbie
