I loved soulman, I had a rough time in 1997, listening to him every Friday night help me so much. I actually think I'm a stronger person because of his help.

Karen posted:

Soul Man taught us so much about the classic blues and soul. I have loved listening to him for many many years. He influenced me to learn more about the wonderful blues created by his close friend, Little Milton and many others. I recall the show he did to honor Little Milton after he passed. He was heartbroken but did a wonderful job of portraying him. We called often as the "People in the pool". We would request one of our favorites, Etta James as well as his choice. He always played her for us. He enjoyed our calls and said he was jealous he couldn't join us! We are planning a music themed 2nd honeymoon (10/21) and Bob (Soul Man) was a big influence for our exitign adventure! Looking forward to hitting the Rock and roll hall of fame & Mississippi Delta, Muscle Shoals, Memphis, ect. I will always be thankful for the talented way he could educate us on the blues and soul and he had soooooo much fun doing it. Ohhhhhh Yeaahhhh Baby
