Judith Carol Van Ore

DEC 26, 1940 - SEP 18, 2021

Judy passed into the arms of God on Saturday, September 18, 2021. Born in Chicago, Illinois December 26, 1940, she spent most of her childhood years in the family home in Wichita, Kansas. Following high school, Judy and her parents moved to Maitland, Florida where her father was employed in the defense and aerospace industry and later an entrepreneur in the printing business. A graduate of the University of Florida, Judy married her loving husband Larry, a fellow Gator, April 19, 1964. Together, they raised two sons and settled in Winter Park, Florida and adjacent suburbs north of Orlando. Larry traveled often in his career, with Judy tending to two energetic boys while also working as a bookkeeper in public accounting and law firms. Following retirement, they continued to live in Winter Springs, Florida until moving to Riverview, Florida in 2014.

Judy was a gifted artist painting and drawing and had more recently enjoyed quilting and bible study with small groups from St. Andrews United Methodist Church. She was a lifelong Methodist with a strong faith in God, the power of prayer and the sweetest concern for everyone she met.

Judith is preceded in death by her parents Frank and Lila Pusey. She is survived by husband of 57 years, Lawrence, sons Andrew and Anthony, grandchildren Joel and Olivia, nieces Lisa Thompson and Anna Kahn, nephew Michael Van Ore and extended family relations.

A memorial service will be held at 11:00 AM on Tuesday September 28, 2021 in the chapel of Sunset Funeral Home in Thonotassassa, Florida. In lieu of flowers, donations are encouraged to The Salvation Army, American Red Cross, Dementia Society of America or charity of your choosing.

To the Van Ore Family:I just found out that Judy's memorial service was Tuesday, September 28. Today is September 30.I am such a klutz! I just typed a tribute to Judy but my hand hit the mouse and I lost it all before I could share it. I will try to restate what I wanted to say.I enjoyed reading what everyone had to share about Judy. She was a wonderful person and a beautiful soul. I have known Judy for over 40 years when I went to work in an accounting office as the secretary/receptionist where Judy was also working. She was very kind and it did not take long for us to become fast friends. I have so man wonderful memories and will miss not being able to text or call her to share the latest news.Judy loved her family above all else. She and Larry raised two wonderful boys and she enjoyed her grandchildren, nieces and nephew too. She was a loving daughter and took good care of her parents in their later years. She really missed her mom after she passed.Judy enjoyed oil painting, crafting and quilting among other things. Whenever she took on a project she did it very well. She loved decorating. Her homes were always lovely and inviting. Judy enjoyed entertaining and did a lot of it over the years. She was always a gracious hostess.I am so lucky to have shared so many great memories over the years. I will never forget Judy and what her friendship has meant to me. I do miss her but I know that she is in God's hands now and no longer suffering. She has rejoined her parents, other family members and friends in a wonderful reunion. I will not say goodbye to her but so long until we all see you again.Love,Mary Jane Turner

It is so hard to find enough kind words that we want to express about our dear friend, Judy.... lovely, sweet, caring, honest and loyal are only a few to describe her. Judy was a sincere and faithful Christian who was not judgmental and served others in so many ways. She was a true example of a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, daughter and friend. We will always cherish the wonderful times we had with her and Larry over the years. May she Rest In Peace knowing that she was very loved and admired by all whose lives she touched. Our thoughts and prayers are with Larry, Andy, Tony, Joel, Olivia and all the Van Ore family. Much love, Ted and Brenda Barry

Dear Mom, Today is our special day that celebrates you bringing me into the world. I'm thinking about my birthday differently today, with a heavy but incredibly grateful heart. I'll remember today especially, the example you've been as a parent...always loving, caring, supportive and proud unconditionally. I'll remember today the example you've been as a person...faith filled, prayerful, concerned for others, persevering and selfless. You are who I will always aspire to measure against, the quality of the person I am. On this day each year, I'll celebrate our lives together, reflect on the time we had, the blessing you are to me and my family, the example you lived and say a prayer that I know you continue to watch over us all with a smile on your face and joy in your heart. Rest peacefully Mom and thank you for my birthday and for the blessing it is to both of us. I love you with all I am and I know you do the same. Your loving son, Andy.

Dearest Judy, It feels weird to even call you by your first name. For many years, I called you Mrs. Van Ore or Mrs. V, not out of unfamiliarity, but of respect. I was raised to call my "elders" by their last name to show the utmost respect, which is what I have always had for you. You were and are the epitome of kindness, hope, generosity and love. Your heart was always full and open, which is a beautiful, yet rare, trait. You loved your family fiercely, and you were not afraid to show it. Your husband, two sons, Charlie and grandchildren loved you fiercely in return. I want you to know that I also loved (and love) you so much. I am very thankful God brought me into Andy's life, and therefore into yours. I am forever blessed for how you have touched my life. Love, Jackie

Hi Mom, I miss you so much and love you with all my heart. You are the center of it all. I've got so many memories and I want to tell you every single one of them. Today, I got up and made me eggs on toast. I don't even eat breakfast anymore but felt compelled today. It wasn't as good as you made for Andy and I growing up but you would be proud that I used egg whites only. Trying to stay healthy like you. You were always so supportive of us...you were always so supportive of me even though I was doing things that worried you. You were always so concerned for me whether it was playing football, skateboarding, surfing, martial arts, law enforcement, motorcycle racing or scuba diving. Just know I wasn't purposely trying to worry you even though you probably felt that way sometimes. You loved me just the same. I remember watching moto gp as a kid on ABC Wide World of Sports and marvelling at how fast they were going and leaning into the corners and I said mom!....I wanna do that! And of course you said "Not a chance" but eventually as an adult I made my way onto the track doing track days. I remember you and dad got me that old west Sheriff's badge with the vest and the toy pistols not knowing that later in life I would become a deputy sheriff. I remember you saying "No, please don't" out of worry for me. I know how proud you were of me when I was doing that job but also how happy you were when I moved onto something else. You definitely had your opinions about things and told me no to protect me from myself but then eventually the No's turned into Be Careful's because you wanted to support me. You always cared about others and enjoyed being with family probably more than anything else. Your beauty and creativity were a blessing to us all and I'm proud to be able to call you Mom. I'll save the rest of my memories for another time but know that you will never be forgotten and cherished always. I love you Mom. Your son, Tony
