She loved her family and friends and was devoted to doing for all of them. She enjoyed cooking and would plan her next meal, while eating the one in front of her. Geraldine was sassy, with a vivacious personality and a fighting spirit. If she were here, in her words, "I was a hard worker, hands-on grandmother and crazy senior who loved my family above all. I want to thank my children and granddaughters that helped shuttle me to and from these last few years, made me sammies, managed my meds, cleaned up after me and apologized for my bad behavior. Love you all!"
