Benjamin Edward Hunt was born on December 3, 1947 in Princewick, WV. He grew up on a farm, and loved playing baseball, basketball and football. At age 9 he moved to Los Angeles CA. After high school he went into the US Air Force. After an honorable discharge, he went to airline school. He worked for Pan Am until they went out of business. He then pursued a career with Mansour Travel Company who primarily worked with people in the entertainment industry. Everyone who met him saw his sweet spirit. He loved traveling with his lifelong friends and playing golf. Benjamin loved his Lord and Savior with all his heart and trusted him above all else. He received many miracles in his health.

In 2007 he met his wife Cindy and moved to Tampa, FL and then Brooksville FL. Even though he was suffering with health issues he would always encourage his wife when she was going through something

He is preceded in death by his parents Edward Hunt and Juanita Hunt and his sister Donna Moore(John).

He is survived by his wife Cindy, son Parker Hunt and sister Phyliss Waltz.

A celebration of life service will be in the near future.

Benjamin was the best husband I could have ever asked for. The sixteen years we were married were the best. I was honored to be married to him. I miss him greatly every minute of every day but know he's in heaven with his Lord and Savior. Love his wife Cindy
