Nilsa Henry

FEB 20, 1951 - JUN 16, 2023

Nilsa Henry was born February 19, 1951 in Mayagüez, Puerto Rico. Childhood nickname “Corrio”. Daughter of parents Emilio Garcia (1902-1973) and Rosalina Pinto Garcia (1914-1999). Loving wife to Roy Henry and devoted mother to four children George (1974-1992), Wendy, Shawn and Tiffany Henry. Grandmother to seven grandchildren Julian, Alex, Ethan, Little Roy, DJ, Noel and Nori. Beloved sister to Nilda Jimenez (1942-2019) (children of 3), Miriam Garcia Pinto (1945-2007) (child of 1), Sonia Garcia (1947-1984) (children of 2), Zaida Garcia (children of 2), Emilio Garcia (children of 4) and Milton Garcia (children of 2). Nilsa was known for her contagious laugh and vibrant spirit. She was the life of the party. She cherished her family above everything else. She loved unconditionally, selflessly giving her heart to her husband, children, grandchildren and extended family. Her presence brought comfort, laughter and an endless amount of support. Nilsa loved cooking; it was a passion or even a talent. She shared her love for food with others by opening Nilsa’s Puerto Rican Bistro. Her restaurant became a beloved gathering place where family, friends and community members were welcomed with open arms and treated to her delicious homemade cooking. Nilsa liked crossword puzzles, reality tv and home all she enjoyed the game of bingo, which served as her personal outlet. The game brought her a sense of fulfillment in every win, big or small.

In loving memory of Nilsa Henry, we gather today to celebrate a remarkable individual whose life was filled with love, laughter and devotion. She had the purest heart. Her presence will be missed.

May her soul rest in eternal peace, and may her memory forever remain a cherished part of our lives
