Fred Hart posted:

Lord our God, the death of Gail recalls our human condition and the brevity of our lives on earth. But for those who believe in Your love, death is not the end, nor does it destroy the bonds that You forge in our lives. We share the faith of Your Son's disciples and the hope of the children of God. Bring the light of Christ's resurrection to this time of testing and pain as we pray for Gail and for those who love her, through Christ our Lord. Amen. Fred Hart

For quite a while now I have been jokingly called Gails "Personal maintenance crew". I would do everything from changing a light bulb to trimming the bush by the door to cleaning out the garage area. She always offered to pay but that's not why I did it. I'll miss going by and doing her little chores as I'm retired and it gave me something to pass some time. Sleep in peace and good health my friend.
