I tried to send my sympathies yesterday as I just found out from one of the twins about the loss of such a wonderful giving woman of God that stood up for the children in our community.. She was so strong in her faith... we went to the same church.. I remember she always sat in the same place and sometimes I would join her if she wasn't surrounded but many people loved her at Van Dyke.. I can't get used to calling at Bay. Hope still. Anytime I had a problem with my son. She would help me out because she knows the ways of the courtroom.... I trusted her. I'm so glad that she got to go to Paris. What a beautiful wedding... she never complained about her cancer.. She would just say trust in the Lord... I haven't met many people like her to be quite honest.. my blessings go out to all that were her family and friends. Her boys were friends with my older son Andrew Schnitker, who sadly passed away in a car accident 11 years ago. Cordelle would come over and bring me smoothies! lived in Northdale as well.. I'm wondering where the youngest boy is if any of the older guys could tell me, I'd appreciate it. When I was working in the Irish pub he would come in and play poker on the poker night. He was definitely a playful one.! Cordelle when speaking about him, she would just shake her head and say " the Lord is watching him.."... he was funny though like his mother.. and enjoy a good laugh.. peace be with you all.. much love Melinda Schnitker

Condolences to Ms. Cordel's family. I was introduced to her by Euri Barton Jones my spiritual mentor and got to spend some special time with her. Fondest memory was a day trip by bus to St. Augustine Florida. We had a blast exploring that city. I will always keep that memory close. May she rest in peace.

Cordel, my sister, my friend, my super mentor, I'm kicking myself because I had promised I would come see you in Tampa but never made it. Thank God our mutual friend Euri contacted me and I can now tell the whole world, the wonderful woman that you are. Your spirit lives in all of us. You have touched so many lives. For me, you mentored me and made me a fierce criminal defense, literally show me voir dire in a few hours on a Sunday after church. Everyone expected to lose my first trial and you believed in me more than I believed in myself to win. You told me that you would be there in the courtroom. As I was making my closing argument, I saw you approving every word and I got my first not guilty. Cordel, I can write a book here. The way you unselfishly prayed for me and my daughter in time of trouble. My sister, I am not sad. I will see you at the appointed time. May your soul rest in peace and may your memory stay in power. Loving you always my friend. Now Euri and I will continue the journey till we meet again.

I am sorry that I never had the pleasure of knowing Cordel. Reading these comments and learning who she was through others makes me aware that I missed a real blessing. My prayers are with all the family and loved ones that God's comfort will rest with you. We do not sorrow as those who have no hope. Rather we look forward to the day of reunion in heaven where we will forever be with the Lord. ❤️
