In Loving Memory of Cynthia Phipps

With heavy hearts and deep love, we announce the passing of Cynthia Phipps, who departed this life on Sunday, March 1st, 2026. Cynthia was truly full of life. Her laughter was contagious; her smile could light up any room, and her welcoming personality made everyone feel instantly at home. She had a rare and beautiful gift for turning strangers into friends and friends into family. Being in her presence meant feeling seen, heard, and genuinely loved.

Her greatest joy in life was her family. She loved her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren fiercely and unconditionally, always placing their needs above her own. Whether she was offering wise advice, a comforting embrace or words of encouragement, Cynthia made sure her family knew they were her heart and purpose.

Selfless to her core, Cynthia gave freely of herself. She was the kind of woman who showed up – in the good times and the hard ones – steady, loving, and strong. During life’s challenges, she often reminded those around her with her favorite saying, “This too shall pass.” Those words reflected her faith, resilience, and belief that brighter days were always ahead.

Cynthia leaves to cherish her precious memory her loving son, Christopher Trancoso (Sharon), her adoring son, Michael Phipps (Michelle), and her devoted daughter Elinor Negron (Herb); her beloved grandchildren Alison, Eliana, Marie, Leilani, Kalysia and Junior. Her treasured great-grandchildren Jayden and Sakari; along with a host of bonus grandchildren, nieces/nephews, great-nieces/nephews extended family and dear friends who were blessed by her love. She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Mervyn Phipps, her sons Anthony and Peter, parents, three sisters and one brother.

To Christopher, Ellenor, Michael, Michelle, Lucille, and the rest of the family. I know how much Auntie Cynthia meant to each one of you. Although I am not able to be there with you guys, just know that I am praying for God's comfort for this time of grief. May you know that our heavenly Father is with you as he promised, "He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds." Psalm 147:3 Jacqueline
